Why is sympathy for Charles I in Frankenstein surprising? Explain how the quoted passage demonstrates this sympathy. the workshop of filthy creation | Foundations of Literary ... At first I wasn't sure I agreed entirely with Warren Montag's assertion in "The Workshop of Filthy Creation" that the creature is "not so much the sign of the proletariat as of its unrepresentability." (395) It seemed to me that the purposely ambiguous narrative structure of the novel was the principal catalyst of much of his interpretation: For instance, Montag cites the absence.

Nim - my workshop of filthy creation dream journal 072518 // i traveled through a bunch of places that were improbably close together but looked wildly different. the one that kept recurring looked kind of like old town Quebec, the streets were windy, there were cobblestones and quaint little buildings. i was there with my roommates, but I had to run off because I needed to get someone a gift.
